Association of Interior REALTORS® Welcomes New President and Directors

KELOWNA, B.C. – April 11th, 2025. The Association of Interior REALTORS® is pleased to announce their new Board of Directors.

Kadin Rainville, a licensed REALTOR® practicing in the Kamloops and Thompson Nicola Regional District, has been elected President of the Association, leading a Board of 10 REALTORS® and 1 public director, succeeding President Kaytee Sharun.

“The opportunity to lead my colleagues through the future of Real Estate for this next year is something I am humbled to have the honour of doing,” says Rainville.

“I didn’t know my career as a REALTOR® would take me down the path of leadership within our industry, however, my drive and focus for serving our members, as well as serving the public, is something that resonates within the REALTOR® community. I’m fortunate to be joined at our board table by a very talented group of Directors, and even more fortunate that our Board of Directors are supported by incredible full-time staff at the Association.”

Rainville, a Kamloops native, began his leadership journey within Real Estate in 2023 when he was first elected to the Board of Directors. In 2024, he was elected by his peers to serve as Vice President for the Association of Interior REALTORS®. Kadin brings years of management and leadership skills to the table and always has a people-first approach to problem solving. As he steps into his role as President for the Association, Rainville is ready to tackle industry challenges and move the Association of Interior REALTORS® forward through innovation and creative problem solving.

Ryan Mayne succeeds Rainville in the role of Vice President, while Sharun will continue serving as a director in the role of Past President.

Rainville, Mayne and Sharun are joined by newly elected directors Ben Calderisi, Tracy Danbrook, Amy Essington, Chantal Kowalski, Lisa Moonie and Joel Rodrigues. The full 2025/2026 Association Board of Directors additionally includes Ken Davreux, Tamara Stone and Gavin Thomas.

The new Board of Directors took office effective April 4th and supports the work of approximately 2,600 Interior BC REALTORS®, which, in turn, offer protection and peace of mind for local real estate consumers.
